Produce Distribution Agreement Between Borderlands Produce Rescue and Participating Agency

The mission of Borderlands Produce Rescue is to improve the quality of life of the people of Santa Cruz County, the State of Arizona, other U.S. Cities and Foreign Locations through fresh produce distribution and educating recipients on how to curb food waste to help protect our environment. By signing this agreement I declare that I am willing to follow the mission of Borderlands with regards to the produce that I receive.

POLICIES

1. After-Hours Agencies must register with Borderlands and receive an ID card before they are able to pick up produce at a P.O.W.W.O.W. host site. They must present this ID card when picking up produce. You will receive a new ID card annually, if you respond to the annual email sent asking you to update your application.
2. Borderlands' P.O.W.W.O.W. After-Hours Program is meant to help small organizations whose budget is small and need help with meeting their mission through nutritious food distribution for their participants and or their organization.
3. After-Hours Agencies may only pick up left-over produce at one Borderlands' P.O.W.W.O.W. Agency Host Site per week; a maximum of 10 boxes per variety will be implemented unless there is only one variety then 20 boxes may be taken of the one variety, if available.
4. After-Hours Agencies must email yolanda\_soto@hotmail.com the number of boxes and product type that were picked up at the host site for that week-end, please include the name of the Host Site attended, with date and use the report form to email form.
5. After-Hours Agencies may not pick up produce until after the Agency Host Site is finished distributing to supporters and has closed down.
6. You are receiving this rescued produce at no contribution cost to your organization. We ask that you submit your testimonials/pictures to show how we are helping you help your program. Also, be prepared to stay when picking up to help with cleanup at the host site.
7. Tag us on facebook with your pictures / stories / testimonials using our facebook page @BorderlandsPowwow
8. Borderlands Produce Rescue is committed to implementing inclusive practices in the workplace and throughout our programs. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, age, ethnic background, sex, disability, size, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression and as an agency you also must comply with these practices.
9. If you have a website, or social media, add us as a partner, tag us on photos.
10. Cooperation with this program will ensure its continuance.

For questions you may contact Yolanda Soto @ 520-287-2627
